PERINTER'S SPEECH TO THE

Says We Will Have Neither Chenp Money Nor Cheap Labor, and that Nothing from Abroad Is Cheap Which Entaits Idicaras Upon Our Own Laborers. CANTON, Ohlo, Aug. 18,-Afro-American citisens to the number of about 500, from northern oblo, paid their respects to Major McKinley today. The trip was arranged by the L'Ouverture Rifes, an independent military organization of Clereland, and a more elaborately uniformed delegation never participated in a political demonstration. Their trousers were immaculate white, their full dress coats of finest black broadcloth, and their bearskin shakes the highest and broadest ever seen on Canton streets. Each man looked a drum major, and each man had double the diguity of the average drum major. They were headed by a brass band made up of members of their own race, and marched in platoons, those not in uniform bringing up

The spokesman for the party was the Hon. Harry C. Smith, the colored representative of Cuyahoga county in the Ohio Legislature, He assured Major McKinley that the Afro-American race held him in highest esteem; that they had watched with eagle eyes his every act in which their race was interested, and that out of his career grew their sincere admiration. After extending congratulations and good wishes, Mr. Smith concluded:

We wish to present to you a certificate of honorary membership in the L'Ouverture Rifles It is the first one ever issued, and it is with great pleasure I tender it to you."

When Major McKinley stepped to the front of the porch he was greeted with tumultuous applause. When it subsided he said:

"MS. SMITH AND MY FELLOW CITIZENS: It gives me extreme pleasure to meet and greet this company of rifles and my colored fellow citizens of the city of Cleveland and northern Ohio; and I rejoice to learn from your eloquent spokesman that your race this year, as in all the years of the past, stands faithfully to the Republican cause, which I believe is the cause of cur country. [Applause.] I do not forget-no man can forget that, whether in war or in peace, the race which you represent never turned its back on the glorious old Stars and Stripes. | Great applause and cries of "Hurrah

"When that great civil war commenced no man could tell what its outcome would be in regard to its effect upon your race. There were those who believed that it must result in the abolition of human slavery. There were those who believed otherwise. The result was the immortal proclamation of emancipation by the best friend you ever had, Abraham Lipcoln [tremendous cheering], whose name you will charish revers forever and forever more. James & Blaine once said that the first instinct of an American was 'equality, equality of privilege, equality in political power.' That sentiment ong ago found expression in the Constitution of the United States, and the people of this country placed in that great instrument where it had never been before, and where, under God. ttahall ever remain, civil and political equality to every citizen, everywhere beneath the flag.

"I congratulate you, gentlemen, upon the splendid progress that your race has made since emancipation. You have done better: you have advanced more rapidly than it was believed comble at the time. You have improved greatly the educational advantages which you have had. Your people everywhere, North and South, are accumulating property, and to-day you stand as among the most conservative of the citizens of this great republic. [Applause.] I congratulate you from the bottom of my heart upon the advancement you have already made, and i sincerely wish for you and your race, fellow citizens of a common country, the highest realization of your hopes and your prayers. [Great cheering.]

We are now engaged in a political contest, and your presence in such vast numbers here to-day evidences the interest which you have in the public questions that are now engaging the attention of the American people. We have a great country and we must keep it great. The post which the United States must occupy, both in wages and industries and in the integrity of its finances and currency, must be at the head of the nations of the earth. [Loud applause.] To that place of honor the people of the country must restore it this year. They have the opportunity that they have wished for since 1892; will they meet it in this year 1896? [Cries of will they meet it in this year.

"They will."

"We want in the United States neither cheap money nor cheap labor. [Great cheering.] We will have neither the one nor the other. [Appliance.] We must not forget that nothing is plance.] We must not possess which comes plane. We must not forget that nothing is chesp to the American people which comes from abroad when it estadis idleness upon our own lasoures. [Tremendeus applause.] We are opposed to any policy which increases the number of memployed in the United States, went fitdoes give us cheaper foreign goods, and we are opposed to any policy which degrades American manhood that we may have cheaper products made either at home or shread. Great applause.]

"Having reduced the pay of labor, it is now proposed to reduce the value of the money in which labor is paid. [Laughter and applause.] This money question presents itself to me in this homely fashion. If free coinage of sliver means a fity-three-cent dollar, then it is not as hotest dollar. Applause.] If free coinage means a one-hundred-cent dollar, equal to a sold dollar, as some of its advocates assert, we will not then have cheap dollars, but dollars less like those we now have, and which will be shard to get. [Applause.] In which case, free coinage will not help the debtor or make it saids the finite of the debtor or make it saids from to pay his debts. [Cries "That's right!"]

"My countrymen, the most un-American of

sesser for him to pa, his debts. [Cries "That's right"]

My countrymen, the most un-American of all appeals observable in this campaign is the cos which seeks to array labor against capital, employer against employed. [Applause.] It is most amparioute and is fraught with the greatest peril to all concerned. We are all political equals here, equal in privilege and opportunity, dependent upon each other, and the prosperity of the other. [Great there is, It is as Mr. Lincoln said to the committee from the Workingmen's Association of New York in the campaign of 1864: Prosperity is the fruit of labor. Property is desirable: It is a positive good in the world. That some should brich shows that others may become rich, and kence is just encouragement to industry and suterprise. Let no man who is homeless pull dawn the house of another, but let him work diligently and built one for himself, thus ey example assuring that his own shall be safe from violence when built.

"I thank you, my fellow citizens, for this call of greating and congratulation. I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me in electing me the first honorary member of your organization. I assure you it will give me pleasure to make the pleasure of your personally." [Great applause.]

is meet each of you personally." [Great applause.]

After the speech making, Major McKinley was out upon the lawn and personally greeted each of the visitors. During the whole affair Mrs. McKinley sat in the doorway, far enough sake to be protected from the draughts, but in full view of the visitors, upon whom she smiled macionsly. When all had shaken hands with the Major the party proceeded to Meyer's Lake for an all-day pionic. Gen, shewart, h. Woodford, ex-Licutenant-Governor of New York, now of the Greater New York commission, and his wife were guests at the McKinley home inst night and for luncheon today. They left this afternoon for the East. The General had been in Ohio several days, having participated in opening the State campaign last week. To a reporter to-day he said a m not given to the making of political predictions hut you can quote me as predicting that New York will give Major McKinley a pinality of at least 100,000, and very probably the Empire State.

The General was asked about the story published yesterilay that the Kepublicans would have two freneral was asked about the story pub-disasters that would result from free-silver, and said:

"The more closely we examine the demands for the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1, the clearer it becomes that it is an uneconomic because reasoning, and financial fanaticism. The remedy for our financial lils must be sought in constructive reform of our banking system. For true revenue reform we must look to such a rational revision of the tariff as shall afford adequate protection to our domestic industries and secure ample revenues for the needs of the Government. These questions are pressing for the application of the best statesmanship of the nation. But in order that these national reforms may be accomplished and the property and progress of the country redetablished, the threatening availanche of free silver must first be prevented." heral was asked about the story pub-sistering that the Republicans would thinkers in the field in New York.

The information was given The Sun correspondent to-night that there is a well-organized movement among the sound-money Demourats of Ohio to formulate a plan which will make their opposition to Candidate Bryan count for the most—to draw from his vote and add to that of one who is a factor in the race. Congressman Outhwaite is said to be backing the movement, and, it is alleged, will have a full quota of representatives from Ohio in the Indianapolis Convention who will vote and work for a platform such as sound-money Democrata can accent most heartify, and then to endorse the candidacy of Major McKloley as the most emphatic and effective method of showing disapproval of the Chicago Convention and its work.

TALKING FOR SOUND MONEY.

Meeting in Belgeville. DOLORVILLE, N. Y., Aug. 18 .- A committee

from the Dolgeville Republican Club called upon Prof. George Gunton of New York on Monday at the residence of Mr. Alfred Dolge, where with his family the eminent sociologist has been a welcome guest for some time, and extended to him an urgent invitation to address the electors of Dolgeville and vicinity on the issues of the political campaign. The invitation was accepted, and the meeting was held in Turn Hall this evening. Mr. Alfred Dolge in-farmers through the cornering of money, which

"In support of this policy of helping the poor by injuring the rich through the debasement of our money, they present certain specific argu-ments, which have a very convincing effect upon those who have not taken the pains to inform themselves upon the subject, and it is no reflec-tion upon the general intelligence of the com-munity to say that these represent a very large

Referring to 'he act of 1873, he said that act did not demonssize nor in the slightest degree impair a single dollar of standard money. On the contrary, nearly all the sliver money we have has come into existence since the so-called crime of 1873.

QUARTERS AT CHICAGO. Senators Cullom and Allison Say that There Is a Gradual Change in the Free-collage Sentiment in Pavor of Hound Money Mr. Manna Will Be in New York To-day.

The Hop, Mark A. Hanna, Republican National Chairman, left Cleveland last night and is expected here to-day. He will remain in town the rest of the week at least, and while here will consult with National Treasurer Cornelius N. Bliss and other campaigners. A new feature has been introduced at headquarters. Reports by long-distance telephone were yesterday received from the Chicago headquarters. The main fight is expected to be made from the care headquarters, and all voters in the East wish to hear daily from the seat of war as to the work.

It is said many sound-money Democrats of Indiana have been converted to the same view and will unite with Obloans in missionary work elsewhere. This view has been publicly announced by prominent sound-money Democrats in other States, and the movement is assuming such proportions as to make the endorsement of Mc-Kiniey at Indianapolis more than possible. progress of the battle in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, and neighboring States. The official report from Chicago yesterday deciared: "Senators Cultom of Illinois and Allison of Iowa and ex-Congressman Adams of Chicago were among the callers at headquarters to-day. They reported a gradual but perceptible change in the free-coinage sentiment in their States in favor of sound money, "Chairman Post of the Nebraska State Committee says that the Republican farmers of his State who were led away by Bryan are now for the first time asking for sound-money literature, and are beginning to show a desire to consider our side of the controversy. Up to the last few days many of them were unwilling to either receive or read anything in favor of sound currency.

"Senator Allison expressed the belief that the public mind of his State, at least, would be thoroughly gorged with currency arguments before the end of September; that the people would be tired of the discussion, and that when they had had enough of the money question they would turn to the tariff.

"Senator Cullom says that Illinois Republicans have never had so good an organization as at present. In his opinion the laboring men and mechanics of Chicago will be almost solid for McKinley and Hobart by the first of Novem-

"He knows well that I have never been connected with the Platt machine. He knows well that that is why I have been defeated time after time as a delegate to State Conventions and to National Conventions. He has been the representative of the Platt machine in Herkimer county, and up to this time he has had the power to defeat me. But on this occasion I have defeated him, and it is idle talk for him to say that it was a fight between Miller and Platt in Herkimer county. It was a fight between Miller and Sheard, and if he wishes to tell the candid truth he will edmit this. I have right on my side, and the Committee on Credentials at Saratoga cannot in justice do anything but seat the Sheard delegates.

This fight in the Committee on Credentials between Miller and Sheard promises to be the most interesting contest heard at a Republican State Convention in the last ten years. Mr. Miller at St. Louis was charged, in speeches made in the New York delegation, with treachery and disloyalty to Gov. Morton, the Republican State Convention, which met in Grand Central Palace on March 24. Mr. Miller obeyed his instructions, it is true, but the organization Republicans of the State declared openly that for a month before he went to St. Louis, and all the time he was there, his words and conduct showed disloyalty to the candidate of the Republicans of New York State. It was his conduct at St. Louis, it was said yesterday, which has caused all the trouble in Herkimer county. The Republicans of that county are now solidly for McKinley; but very severe criticism has been passed upon Mr. Miller by them for his political attitude American laborer and the American manufacturer, I recognize the present seriousness of the money question, and therefore we meet to-day upon the broad platform of honest money and honest government, which will guarantee to the trader an honest dollar for an honest dollar's worth of goods. To-day we are united on that one platform of broad principle.

"The business of this country, as you so well know, is, largely, indeed almost entirely, dependent upon the amount of confidence one has in another. You and I have both suffered from the depression which followed the adoption of the Chicago platform, and which has become more intense as the revolutionary principles of Bryan and his followers are better understood. We have felt most keenly the lack of confidence which has hurt the husiness of the country, and I think and hope that each one of you will agree with me that the quickest way to restore that confidence and the shortest road to prosperity lie in the overwheiming defeat of firyan and Sewall and the principles they stand for. I am glad we are lined up to battle for the honest dollar.

"I take this visit not as a personal matter, but

Eickers to the State Convention. WATERTOWN, N. Y., Aug. 18. The First and second Assembly District Republican Conventions for Jefferson county were held in this city to-day, and both of them carried out a cut-anddried anti-Platt programme. In both districts resolutions were passed instructing the delegates to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of either Saxton or Roberts for Governor. In the Second district there was some opposition to this, but the Piatt men were in the minority. A resolution passed both Conventions instructing the delegates to use every effort to secure the State committeemen for this district from Jefferson county.

WOODRUFF STARTS BIS BOOM. Brooklyn Politicians Entertained at His

Paintini Home, Timothy L. Woodruff, Park Commissioner of Brooklyn, who hopes to be the Republi can candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, gave a reception last night to the ninety-two delegates who will represent Kings county at the Republican State Convention at Saratoga.

Mr. Woo iruff lives in one of the largest and most richly appointed houses on the Park slope, at the corner of President street and Eighth avenue. The reception rooms were decorated with cut flowers and grow ing plants, and a string orchestra made music while the politicians discussed the chances of their host at Saratoga. Mr Woodruff's retinue of uniformed servants waited on the guests, and the entertainment was away beyond their wildest dreams of hos pitality. The host and his wife were every where making the guesta welcome.

Of course, the talk was mainly of politics, but there was no formality, and there were but there was no formality, and there were no speeches.

Mr. Woodruff, who is popularly known as "Tim" among Republican politicians in Brooklyn, explained to a group of reporters that the reception really had no colitical significance. His sole aim, he said, was to make the delegates acquainted with each other before they started for the Convention. He hoped that this would bear fruit in waking a united delegation at the Convention. When asked about the possible ticket he gave it as his opinion that the aggressive candidates for the Governorship were Aldridge, Fish, and Wadsworth, and that the massive candidates were J. Sloat Fassett, Mr. Saston, and Mr. Roberts. He thought that it would be some time before the Convention reached a choice if the nomination were not maile on the first ballot.

Mr. Woodruff admitted that he would very much like to have the second place on the ticket and that he was quite condident of the result.

ticket and that he was quite confident of the result.

Mr. Woodruff was assured some time ago that the delegation would be solid for him any way and one enthusiast last night declared that not only were they solid for Woodruff for Lieutenant-Governor but that for Governor they would vote as Mr. Woodruff said.

It was evident that Mr. Woodruff intended if possible to heal local factional differences for Jacob Worth. Theodore B. Willis, and Sheriff Buttling were among the guests invited.

Mr. Worth was not present, but Willis and Buttling were. Among the guests were also Congressman Dennis M. Hurley, Silas B. Dutcher, Justice W. W. Goodrich, Alfred H. Hodges, ex-Senator Charles H. Russell, Michael J. Daly, Jacob Brenner, T. Alfred Vernon, Alderman David Stewart, Joseph R. Clark, President of the Board of Aldermen, Theodore L. Cocheu, District Attorner Foster L. Backus, and W. J. Taylor. Of the ninety-two delegates from Kings county, nearly seventy were present.

DEMAND FOR CAMPAIGN READING. Millions of Documents Nent Out by the Com-mittees of Both Parties.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.-Since the opening of the campaign the Republican Congressiona Committee has sent out a little more than thirteen millions of documents. On Saturday alone 337,000 copies of various speeches were started on their way. So great has been the demands for literature that the committee has been compelled to again enlarge its quarters. The speed for which there is the greatest demand is that of Mr. Cleary of Minnesota, in reply to Representative Towne, one of the bolting Republicans at the St. Louis Convention. A very large edition of Secretary Carlisle's Chicago speech to workingmen has been exhausted and another is on the press. Another popular tract that has been printed by the hundred thousand is written in a conversational vein and entitled "Three Evenings with Money."

The most of us, with a desire of upholding the financial bonor of our country, feel that, while still Democrats, we must accept the nomnation of the Republican party and vote for the candidates who stand on a gold bistform—McKinley and Hobart. THE BOLTING PROBLETIONISTS. In Kansas They Decline to Nominate Bryan

Electors. TOPERA, Kan., Ang. 18. The State Convention of the National party held here to-day was closely divided between fusionists and Middle of the Road men. An attempt was made to heal the breach between the two wings of the Prohibitionists by nominating the Prohibition State ticket, but this was defeated, and a State ticket of members of the National party was nominated as follows:

Chief Justice, J. R. Silvers, Topeka; Governor, Henry Douthitt, Hiawatha; Lieutenant-Governor, E. Clark, Olathe; Secretary of State, T. S. Walters, Reifeville; Attorney-General, Mrs. Lucia O. Case, Topoka; Auditor, Levi Heiknap, Pittsburgh; Treasurer, James Murray, Baldwin; State Superintendent, C. H. McClerkin, Clay

The fight between the two factions of the party came up over the nomination of a candinate for congressman at large. The fusionists wanted the Rev. J. D. Botkin, the nominge of the Populists and Democrats, and he was nominated by a vote of 21 to 11.

The Middle of the Road men then said that if Bryan electors were combined they would bolt the Contention and have nothing more to do with the party. To prevent this the Bryan men, who were apparently in the majority, made no opposition to the combination of Bentiev electors, but declared openly that they would vote for Bryan and Sewall, BARON ZEDTWITZ KILLED.

AN ACCIDENT STOPS THE RACES IN THE SOUTHSEA REGATTA. Empenor William's Vacht Meteor Russ Into

accident, kicking up a bad sea, and it was raining very hard. The leolde was badly damaged and was towed to Portsmouth. The bowsprit of the Meteor swept her dock and carried away all of her gear. Several members of the Isolde's crew were picked up in an exhausted condition. The crew experienced some very narrow escapes, but fortunately all of them were rescued. A salion belonging to the British gunboat Ant. which was lying at anchor near the scene of the collision, rescued one of the Isolde's mes in a drowning condition. He could not have survived thirty seconds longer. The accident cast a gloom over everything, and the races were abandoned for the day.

Capt. Gomes, the skipper of the Meteor, ascribes the collision of the Meteor with the Isolde to the fact that the Britannia did not make way for the Meteor to pass the Isolde.

All of the club houses at Spithead and Ryde are flying flags at half mast in consequence of the death of the Haron.

As a yachtsman Baron von Zedtwitz was a good sportsman, and he was well liked in all of the English sporting centres. His wife, the Haroness von Zedtwitz, was a daughter of the hate Mr. Charles Roosevelt of New York.

He had no knowledge of any of the important events which had occurred outside the prison wails during his incarceration, and expressed great aurprise at hearing that Parnell was dead. Devany said to friends with whom he talked that his prison life was an experience too awful to admit of description. During the whole time of his imprisonment, he said, he never once had the slightest chance to escape.

TIMOTHY HEALY'S FACTION. It Benounces the Coming Nationalist Convention at Dublin.

DUBLIN, Aug. 18. -At a meeting of the suporters of Mr. Timothy Healy, held in this city to night, a resolution was adopted denouncing the coming Nationalist Convention as a mere attempt of Mr. John Dillon to bolster up his attempt of Mr. John Dillon to bolster up his own leadership and to promote his personal ambitton. Another resolution was adopted expressing satisfaction that the Irish Land bill had been passed by Parliament.
Mr. Healy declared that so long as Mr.
Dillon was at the head of the Nationalists the party would never achieve success.
Mr. Murphy, the Chairman, denounced the Convention as a delusion and a share for Irish, men in foreign countries.

THE POPS WILL STICK TO WATSON. Senator Butler Says the Democrate Made a Mistake is Nominating Sewall.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18 .- The Populist party this year, like the two old parties, will luxuriate in double-barrelled headquarters, the main office to be in Washington and the branch in Chicago. This may be reversed, but the understanding upon adjournment of the rather informal meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Committee this afternoon was as stated. The three members of the committee who were here yesterday (Messra, Edgerton of Nebrasks, Secretary Reed of Georgia, and Washburn of Massachusetts) were joined this morning by Senator Marion Butler of North Carolina, Chairman; J. R. Sovereign of Arkansas, Master Workman K. of L., and Dr. C. F. Taylor of Pennsylvania, who met shortly after noon in Senator Butler's room at the Shoreham. They were in session about an hour, and after they had separated for lunch Chairman Butler told the newspaper men what had been done. He said:

any subject. Nearly all of the session was any subject. Nearly all of the session was spent in hearing reports from the several members of the condition of things in their respective territories. I may say, without going into details, that the reports were far more satisfactory than I had reason to look for. No action was taken upon the location of headquarters, although it was discussed."

Senator Butler reviewed the general political situation at some length.

"In North Carolina," he said, "the details of fusion have been left to an Executive Committee appointed by our State Convention. At present there is nothing to be said regarding the probabilities of its action, further than that whatever is done shall result in the selection of eleven electors in the old North State for Brysn and Watson.

"We talked about the situation in North Carolina and several other States not necessary to mention now. There will be a consolidation of the silver vote. We have made fusion arrangements in Washington and Minnesota that cannot be overcome in these States. We have jument money, but the enemy haven't enough to buy it off. Arrangements are in progress for fusion in well, i'll tell you what State when they are completed.

Senstor Butler reached Washington from his North Carolina home at 7 o'clock, and went at once to the hotel. Shortly after breakfast he was joined by Senator Stewart of Nevada, and with him called on Senator Jones at Democratio headquarters. That gentleman had not yet arrived, however, and they returned to the hotel. Later, upon heing, informed of their visit, Senator Junes went across the street and returned the call. He remained in conference with Senator Butler some time. Other callers upon the Populist Chairman in the course of the morning were Mr. Josephus Daniels, member of the National Democratic Committee from North Carolina, and the Rev. Mr. Kent of the People's Church, Washington, who was a delegate to the Populist Convention.

Alabama Pops, According to Chairmag Beans, Will Fight in Every Way.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 18 .- G. B. Deans, Chairman of the People's Party Executive a meeting of the committee in Birmingham on Sept. 3. The call winds up as follows: "Business of importance will come before the committee and a full attendance is desired." The position the party will occupy toward the Democratic ticket is the burning question with the Populites. Chairman Deans, when questioned to-day as to what would be done, said that a definite plan had not been decided upon, but that it was certain that the Populites were not going to lend aid to the Democrats. He did not believe they were going to vote for Bryan and Sewall whatsoever they did. Personally Chairman Deans is for anything opposed to Democracy in Alabama, and it is more than probable that the committee will call a meeting for the naming of a Bryan and Watson electoral ticket for the State. follows: "Business of importance will come
